

Who Is Jim LiVecchi?

For more information, visit: www.facebook.com/jimlivecchiformayor or www.livecchi4mayor.com

-Family man (most important of all)

Married Jody 36 years; daughters Jena and Jade

Not a Politician

Not aligned with any political group (CAG) or any political party

Openness to listen and talk all sides and will do what is best for Salida

Education:

Undergraduate degree from Colorado College master degree in Operation Management

Employment:

Retired from United Parcel Service (Area Manager) multiple centers responsible from Lamar to Alamosa managed 11-15 supervisors and 100-130 hourly responsible for all aspects of the operations Budget, HR, IE, Labor, Safety, Maintenance (buildings and vehicles), outside vendors

Community Leadership:

Community Thanksgiving Dinner for 10 years

American Red Cross various positions

Helping Hands providing meals following death of love ones

Volunteered for Boys and Girls Club

Saint Joe's Parish Council

Why Mayor:

Council must start working together for the betterment of Salida

"This is what is expected from all of us"

Focus:

Calm the Waters

Manage productive meetings

Talking and listening to current Council members, those running, all department heads, business leaders to understand all positions and concerns

"Where we are and where we want to be"

Fair Minded reduce the negativity

Respectful to all listen to everyone

Agree to disagree with civility

Water Rates Infrastructure in particular Ward-3 Streets

10 year plan

Affordable housing

Employment W/W County and State to keep Salida youth

Develop Vandaveer with input from Residence-Council-Staff